

TRAINING FOR COMMUNITY GROUPS AND ASSOCIATIONS ON ABC LAWS AND REGULATIONS

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE REGULATION ADMINISTRATION

The Alcoholic Beverage Regulation Administration (ABRA) is holding a series of specialized trainings for Community Groups and Associations on the District's alcoholic beverage control laws and regulations. These training sessions will help participants to gain a better understanding of the regulatory process, the work of the ABC Board, the role of community groups and associations in the ABC license process, and a special emphasis will be placed on the changes to the law and regulations adopted by the D.C. Council in 2004. It will be a very informative session, and you are strongly encouraged to attend.

Learn about the:

- ♦ Laws and regulations and how they affect your community;
- ♦ Changes to the moratorium procedures;
- ♦ How to read a placard;
- ♦ When, how, and where to File a protest with the ABC Board;
- ♦ What are voluntary/cooperative agreements;
- ♦ What agency do you call for noise, trash, parking, and building code violations;
- ♦ Who do you call to register a complaint; and
- ♦ Q & A's with the General Counsel.
